Description

Akyga® AK-SW-32 magnetic cable is used to charge Fitbit sports band. It is a high-quality USB cable with a dedicated connector for Inspire and Ace 2 smart bands. Thanks to the perfect fit, the cable is nothing inferior to the original version of the charger. This makes it an ideal replacement for a damaged or lost cable. What's more, the cable allows you to choose power source freely. The universal USB plug can be connected to your laptop, powerbank or AC adapter. While the built-in magnet provides protection against accidental disconnection of the core. This makes charging the armband also possible during car trip.

Fits among others: Fitbit Inspire, Fitbit Inspire HR, Fitbit Ace 2.
